Gentlemen,

Hope all is well. Who is the POC that the WHLO needs to contact for the POTUS visit. The WHLO will be here this Wednesday to talk Hangar space, Aircraft, and the requirement for all service to support the upcoming visit.

I let him know that MCAS Miramar has lead and we will support. They've already called Maj (b) (6), and MAG-16. They contacted me a few moments ago and I let him know I would get him a good POC. Any direction would be greatly appreciated.

Please point me to the a good POC for Hangar walk through on Thursday around noon. I may run a little early as my group from the White House will already be conducting a walk through of the FBO near your location at Mirimar NAS.

Appreciate the assist.

Good morning all.

Just a quick note to make sure we are okay with our 11 am walk through at the airport arrival location for Air Force One (Ops bldg/FBO), and also for our follow on walk through of Hangar 4? Who is my POC for Hangar 4?

Please advise and thanks.

Gentlemen, it is required that we all arrive at base ops tomorrow at 1045 in order to be screened and stand by to be escorted for the arrival greeting. Prior to there will be sweeps across the flight line so no need to arrive early. Once the greet is over we will be escorted to the event site and have a designated seating area next to the stage. We have no other requirements once the event starts and will not be greeting for the departure.

God Bless & Semper Fi

XOs,

The MAW's total requirement for the visit on Tues is 2000 and family members are encouraged to attend. We've broken down the numbers as follows:

MAG-11 : 600
MAG-16: 750
MACG-38: 350
MWSG-3: 300

Please send me a excel roster (rank, first, last) of those attending from your unit NLT 1000 on Monday. To meet a security requirement, that is when we need to submit them to the event coordinator. I apologies for dropping this roster requirement on you this late. We didn't anticipate it.

The timeline for those attending will be published on Monday, we we can expect that they will go through security screening checkpoint between 1100-1200 with the event going from 1400-1500. The security protocol will be similar to the air show - no bags, no strollers.

More to follow. Thank you for your support.

Commanders,

You may have heard of the pending impact of this VVIP visit from the G-3. In addition, we are also getting tasked with providing a portion of the audience for the visit. More to follow on the specific numbers for each unit and event SOM. Here is what we know:

- 13 Mar, Hanger 4, sometime between 1100 and 1530.
- The total MAW requirement for uniformed service members is 2500.

We are also asking for family members to participate.

- Woody is the lead, we're in support.

Can you come over and talk to the AWC about the POTUS event?
Specifically, what the static display is?

Sir,

Just looked at your list. There are 2835 names on it. Are 2835 expected to attend? That would put us way over capacity.

Or is this each Squadron's Master Roster and not all are expected to participate?

Please advise and thank you.

XOs,

The MAW's total requirement for the visit on Tues is 2000 and family members are encouraged to attend. We've broken down the numbers as follows:

MAG-11 : 600

MAG-16: 750

MACG-38: 350

MWSG-3: 300

Please send me a excel roster (rank, first, last) of those attending from your unit NLT 1000 on Monday. To meet a security requirement, that is when we need to submit them to the event coordinator. I apologies for dropping this roster requirement on you this late. We didn't anticipate it.

The timeline for those attending will be published on Monday, we we can expect that they will go through security screening checkpoint between 1100-1200 with the event going from 1400-1500. The security protocol will be similar to the air show - no bags, no strollers.

More to follow. Thank you for your support.

Don't know if this is already in the works, but It would be a great help to run the tram down the flight line and perhaps a few other areas in order to help alleviate vehicles/parking. If you need help from us to make this possible, please let me know.

Subject: RE: Update: VVIP visit to MCAS

Gentlemen:

For MWHS numbers, some considerations:

-- With everyone we've got TAD and augmenting, we'll run just over 400 truly on hand. The requirement for 300 people essentially shuts us down that day starting around 1030ish. By comparison, MACG-38 has roughly three times the personnel, but only 50 more people required; they'll be impacted, but not nearly what we will. Coming off of MEFEX, there's a lot of work to get down next week.

-- Rosters by 1000 on Monday with word out after 1700 on Friday is ambitious; we'll do it, because we're essentially going to assume everyone will go.

-- I am not sure how to proceed on encouraging families to attend; if we need family numbers by 1000 on Monday, it will be challenging.

My recommendations:

-- If we accept getting effectively shut down, keep the number at 300. However, if we want to have some capacity remaining that day, I recommend lowering our goal to 200

-- Requesting guidance on getting word out to families this weekend. I don't think it's a good idea or expectation, unless you directed to. Either way, it's too close in to expect a good turnout if numbers have to be submitted by 1000 on Monday,

Commanders,

You may have heard of the pending impact of this VVIP visit from the G-3. In addition, we are also getting tasked with providing a portion of the audience for the visit. More to follow on the specific numbers for each unit and event SOM. Here is what we know:

- 13 Mar, Hanger 4, sometime between 1100 and 1530.
- The total MAW requirement for uniformed service members is 2500.

We are also asking for family members to participate.

- Woody is the lead, we're in support.

Good afternoon Sir,

Yes I saw it and I have no issues with the guidance, especially since this visit is short-fused. In terms of the event alone, we are taking a big risk with the short notification of this visit and are relying HEAVILY on the squadron COs and SgtMajs to pass the word to their Marines and Sailors. We are prepping troop cards to pass out to Marines walking in with information for the White House Press Lead and that we are not conducting interviews.

One concern I do have is if the families start cheering about a topic that may be political in nature and the Marines chime in in a conforming manner.

I don't know what topic that POTUS will discuss - the speech writer hasn't gotten back to us - but he is known to go off script.

Media will be cordoned off and will be separate from the service members in the audience which will help mitigate the risk for interviews.

- Media interviews are NOT authorized by service members.
- Service members are to remain apolitical when in uniform.
  - We should only be cheering for statements that apply to the military, i.e.: defeating ISIS, transitioning to F-35 squadrons, honoring our accomplishments, and so on
  - You represent the entire Marine Corps when in uniform. This is not the time to air personal political views.
- If you do end up talking to a reporter, remember that nothing is "off the record." Everything you discuss with a reporter is considered on the record and can be printed or broadcasted. Never say or do anything you don't intend the public to see on television.
- Please direct all questions to the MCAS Miramar Office of Communication at 858-577-6000.

-Media interviews are NOT authorized by service members.

-Service members are to remain apolitical when in uniform.

-We should only be cheering for statements that apply to the military, i.e.: defeating ISIS, transitioning to F-35 squadrons, honoring our accomplishments, and so on

-You represent the entire Marine Corps when in uniform. This is not the time to air personal political views.

- If you do end up talking to a reporter, remember that nothing is "off the record." Everything you discuss with a reporter is considered on the record and can be printed or broadcasted. Never say or do anything you don't intend the public to see on television.

-Please direct all questions to the MCAS Miramar Office of Communication at 858-577-6000.
